

What to Expect from the New Administration

Popular and perennial guest speaker Dr. Mark Solomon returns to the Deerfield Progressive Forum to address “What to Expect from the New Administration” during his presentation on January 31, 2009.

Professor Emeritus of History at Simmons College in Boston, he received a Ph.D. in the History of American Civilization from Harvard University, a Master of Arts degree in history from the University of Michigan and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Wayne State University. He has served as a guest professor at Boston College, M.I.T., and Humboldt University in Berlin. He has also lectured extensively in Europe, Asia, and the Caribbean as well as throughout the U.S. on subjects such as

He has written, contributed to, and/or edited at least six books and serves as the national co-chair of the Committees of Correspondence for Democracy and Socialism. In addition, he has written a substantial number of articles that cover issues about US Foreign Policy, the peace and civil rights movements, race and racism, globalization, war and peace, and the historic relationship between white radicals and African Americans.

Cyndee Pattison